

Dispatches from the Bunker

Dispatch # 39

For ASL Players Everywhere
From ASL Veterans in New England

In this Latest Issue

Greetings from the Bunker: In this new PDF issue we have four new action-packed scenarios for your ASL enjoyment. Kedge and Chuck Tewksbury will expound on their efforts to expand the regional ASL community into local hobby shops and Carl Nogueira continues his always-popular Tactical Tips. I'll have the Nor'easter review and previews of the Bunker Bash and Albany Tournament along with all our usual features.

Mopping Up Kobayashi: The brave men of the 38th Infantry Division pursued the remnants of the Kobayashi Group after the failed counterattack by the Japanese at the Wawa Dam. Can they destroy this pocket of resistance nearby?

Takin' Eibertingen: As the post Battle of the Bulge counteroffensive continued, the men of Company G, 23rd Infantry were tasked with taking the village of Eibertingen on the road back to St Vith. Will they succeed despite scarce ammo?

Killer Kloskowski: With the 3rd Battle of Kharkov underway, elements of the 2nd SS Das Reich were ordered to take Pawlograd in the suburbs. Can SS-Hauptscharfuhrer Kloskowski take and hold the vital bridge and push into the town?

Teeth of the Wolf: The Iraq campaign saw the collapse of Iraqi resistance at the Habbaniya Escarpment. The Iraqi's regrouped at Sin el-Dhibban and with a new resolve they waited for the British attack. Who will win the day this time?
